Favourite Bible Verses from our Congregation

Idea and text submitted by Margaret Cosh

Colossians 3:16, 17

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God and whatever you do in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Joyce Anderson says, "The reason I share these Bible verses: More people today get their theology from songs. Many hymn writers have taken passages from the Bible and have set them to music... this has been used by God to touch hearts and change lives in ways that the spoken word could not do. Many so-called Christian songs are not based on Biblical truth and are deceiving people with "false" gospel."

Psalm 145:19

He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He will also hear their cry and will save them.

Louise Olenin says, "I can't say I have a favourite Bible verse as there are many I like. Psalm 145:19 gives the peace and knowledge that, no matter what, the Lord is with me."

Luke 2:7

and she brought forth her firstborn Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Shirley Marois says, "This little baby lying in the manger is going to be the Saviour of the world. It makes you feel excited and happy, wonderful, glorious, in awe.

Psalm 138:8

The LORD will

perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever; Do not forsake the works of Your hands. (New King James)

Margaret Cosh says, "These words written by David give us hope and courage when the frayed threads of our lives threaten to overwhelm us. We can remind the Lord that He has promised to perfect that which concerns us when the car battery dies right in front of Knox Presbyterian Church. When we've received a negative medical report, we can trust that the Lord is there in even that circumstance. This verse is a snugly blanket when the winds of adversity blow."

Matthew 6:26

look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet you're heavenly father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they?

Leah Anderson says, "It gives you hope and trust in the Lord to enjoy what is around us. If God is able to sustain the lesser creatures, He will sustain the greater. It's all about trust."
